 LATE ARRIVALS WILL NOT BE ADMITTED *****

These are the only orientation dates scheduled --- all interested applicants must attend the orientation on one of these dates. This orientation will provide an overview of the course. Selection will be based on a passing test score and completeness of the application packet. A lottery will be held should demand for space exceed capacity. The P.O.S.T. reading and writing test will be held immediately after the orientation.

If you have taken the P.O.S.T. reading and writing test at the Training Center or other location within one year of the start of the academy you are applying to attend, you do not need to retest if you scored T-42 or higher.

NOTE:

We request that you bring a copy of your letter with T score and date of test with you to the Selection process, if you took the P.O.S.T. test at a different location other than the Windsor Public Safety Training Center.

For an example of the P.O.S.T. Test log on to:

www.post.ca.gov/selection/select.asp selection/select/ and click on "The Applicant Preparation guide for the POST Entry-Level Test Battery".

For orientation/test reservation return this page with your checked reservation date, OR, email your reservation date request to: ccole@santarosa.edu

NOTE: There will be no confirmation letter sent for these testing dates. It is incumbent upon you to be present at the prescribed date and time.
